BENEFITING

CHILDHELP ALICE C. TYLER VILLAGE

childhelpvirginia.org

Childhelp Alice C. Tyler Village is a private, nonprofit, psychiatric residential treatment facility located in rural Virginia, specializing in the treatment of children and adolescents with mild to severe trauma or neglect, psychiatric disorders, and neurodevelopmental disorders.

Our unique location on a 270-acre horse farm provides a nurturing treatment setting with a variety of therapy resources. Children live in separate home-like cottages based on age and gender.

We take a holistic approach to serving children. In addition to meeting physical, emotional, and educational needs, we address spiritual needs with a full-time chaplain on staff and regular, voluntary, non-denominational services. The children find opportunities to enjoy nature through gardening, animal care, and nature study, and they can find comfort in recreational activities like horseback riding, community outings, hiking and biking trails, rope courses, team sports, swimming, and a children's choir.

CHILDHELP NATIONAL CHILD ABUSE HOTLINE

childhelphotline.org

The Childhelp National Child Abuse Hotline is available 24/7 by phone, text and live chat and serves the United States, Canada, US Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico and Guam. Through translators, the hotline can assist in over 240 languages. Staffed exclusively by degreed professional counselors, this confidential service offers crisis intervention, support, information, and referrals to emergency and social services resources. The hotline is a valuable source of information for mandated reporters like school personnel, health professionals, police and fire investigators.
